

NORTHWOOD HIGH ENGLISH LEARNER ADVISORY COMMITTEE

WEDNESDAY 04.13.22 FROM 5:15-5:40 PM

What is the English Learner Advisory Committee?

The English Learner Advisory Committee (ELAC) is a group of dedicated parents, teachers, counselors, and administrators.

Our purpose is to help our English learning students achieve all of their high school goals by:

- Providing a variety of resources to students and parents
 - Answering questions that committee members have
- Providing contacts on Northwood's campus that can help support student and parents
- Meeting four (4) times a year to determine what steps can be taken to meet the needs of our students

Meeting Agenda

In our third meeting of the year we will:

- Go over introductions of the ELD team here at Northwood
- Talk about what EL supports are in place for incoming 9th graders
- Answer any questions that you have about the matriculation process
