

Spanish 1

This course is an introduction to the Spanish language and its cultures. Students acquire a basic understanding of the language system and the various Spanish-speaking cultures, along with the skills necessary to communicate in a variety of modes at a basic level. Students have opportunities to experience situations they might actually encounter in a Spanish-speaking environment and to use the language to convey and interpret meaning at a basic level.

Students will be able to communicate in Spanish in a variety of modes including listening, speaking, reading and writing in order to convey and receive meaningful messages at a basic level. They will also be able to access and interpret information in Spanish from a variety of sources, styles and cultural contexts appropriate to the level of the class.
