

Spanish 2

This course is an enhancement of the basic study of the Spanish language and its cultures. Students expand their understanding of the language system and the various Spanish-speaking cultures, along with the skills needed to communicate in a variety of modes with increased complexity and proficiency. Students have opportunities to experience situations they might actually encounter in a Spanish-speaking environment and to use language to convey and interpret meaning appropriate to their level.

Students will be able to increase communication in Spanish from the present to the past in a variety of modes including listening, speaking, reading and writing in order to convey and receive meaningful messages. They will also be able to access and interpret information in Spanish from a variety of sources, styles, and cultural contexts appropriate to the level of the class.
